

BIG ARTS

TALKING POINTS 2021

Perspectives on a Changing World

On a broad range of timely topics from the environment to life experiences and technology to trends.

All sessions are at 4:00 PM on Thursdays in Christensen Hall.

January 28
Fred Guttenberg

Public safety advocate and founder of the foundation "Orange Ribbons for Jaime."

FROM GRIEVING FATHER TO GUN SAFETY ADVOCATE

February 4
Lyn Millner

M.F.A., professor of journalism, Florida Gulf Coast University.

FAKE NEWS: HOW TO TELL FACT FROM FICTION

February 11
Ian Sherr

Editor at Large for CNET News, a division of CBS.

IS INTERNET PRIVACY EVEN POSSIBLE?

February 25
Kinfay Moroti

Documentary journalist and photographer at The News-Press.

RACE RELATIONS IN SOUTHWEST FLORIDA: A PHOTOGRAPHIC STUDY

March 4
Katharine Hayhoe

Atmospheric scientist and professor at Texas Tech University.

REDUCE YOUR CARBON FOOTPRINT

March 11

Sam Sifton

Assistant managing editor of the New York Times, culture & lifestyle.

YOU DON'T NEED A RECIPE: COOKING DURING COVID

All tickets $20.00.