

Artist-Instructor Bio:

Joan Roberts is a Cape Coral artist from the Chicago area. Her paintings are a combination of the alla prima and impressionistic styles with brilliant and flamboyant brush strokes and color. No matter what subject, landscapes, figures, or still life, Joan paints with broad strokes, alternating lights with dark, thick with thin, finding edges and losing edges, creating a painting collaborating between heart and mind. Joan was traditionally trained attending the Art Institute of Chicago and exhibits her work at Island Vision, Ft. Myers; Tower Art Gallery, Sanibel; and Harbour View Gallery, Cape Coral.
