BIG ARTS BIG Presents: Three New Exhibits — One Extraordinary Evening!

SANIBEL, FL (May 1, 2025) – BIG ARTS is excited to welcome the community to an inspiring night of art, connection, and celebration at the opening of three new exhibits on Friday, May 9, beginning at 5:00 PM. Guests are invited to enjoy complimentary wine and light bites while they explore the works of remarkable local artists, instructors, and students in this multi-exhibit event.

Featured Exhibits:

Art as Therapy – Hope and Healing Through Art

BIG ARTS Dunham Family Gallery

A powerful collaboration between Hope Healthcare's Art Therapy Program and Lee Health's Art in Healthcare Program that conveys the vision of healing through art.

Annual Artists Collective

BIG ARTS Mezzanine Gallery

A collaboration between our Arts Education & Fine Arts departments, featuring BIG ARTS instructors, showcasing an eclectic body of work that includes a wide range of mediums.

Shell of a Time

BIG ARTS West Gallery

The National Honors Society Art Class of Cypress Lake High School created a mural capturing the beauty of Florida beaches, and all the things that truly make Sanibel "SANIBEL!"

This event is free and open to the public. A ticket is not required.
