

Artist bio:

Gisela Damandl came to the Naples area after retiring from teaching in Pennsylvania. Her fascination with Native American craft has inspired her to create pine needle baskets and small weavings. She has taught workshops at the J.C. Campbell Folk School and teaches at her home, as well as at BIG ARTS. She exhibits her work in Pennsylvania and in Sanibel shows.

