

Artist Bio:

Nancy Mayhew is an award-winning mosaic artist. She is originally from Beloit, Wisconsin, where she retired from a career in human resource management. Nancy and her husband reside in Wisconsin during the summer and in the winter in their home in Fort Myers. Nancy has always been drawn to mosaic art due to her love of recycling old and found items of rusty metal, sea glass, seashells, driftwood, costume jewelry, broken plates, and glass. Nancy is known for designing art that makes people smile! In Wisconsin, she creates comical roosters out of China plates and stained glass. In Florida, she is known for her creation of pelicans and other sea birds. Nancy's work can be found at the Beloit Art Center and The Villager shops in Beloit, Wisconsin, and BIG ARTS on Sanibel Island.
