

Artist Bio:

Kim Tetmeyer

Kim is a ceramic artist based in Hudson, Ohio. With a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Ohio University, Kim has honed her craft as a hand builder, creating distinctive ceramic pieces that are deeply inspired by her travels. Throughout her career, she has showcased her work at summer art shows throughout Northeast Ohio, gaining recognition for her intricate and thoughtful designs. Notably, Kim received an Honorable Mention at both Art on the Green and the Cuyahoga Valley Art Center, reflecting her skill and commitment to her art.

Kim's work reflects a deep connection to nature, often blending organic forms with modern techniques. One of her most recent projects involved creating 859 ceramic flowers for a wedding, a testament to her ability to merge art with special, personalized experiences. Whether in small-scale sculptures or large installations, Kim's pieces invite viewers to reflect on the beauty and complexity of the world around them.
