

Student Supply List

MINDFUL MAKING with Marco Palli

Students are encouraged to bring materials that feel comfortable and inspiring to them. This class is not medium-specific; participants may work in drawing, painting, collage, mixed media, or simple sculptural forms.

Basic Recommended Supplies:

- Sketchbook or mixed media pad (any size)
- Drawing materials (graphite pencils, pens, charcoal, or similar)
- Eraser (kneaded or standard)
- Basic painting supplies (optional):
 - Acrylic or watercolor paints
 - Brushes (variety of sizes)
 - Palette (or disposable palette paper)
- Mixed media materials (optional but encouraged):
 - Magazines, printed images, or personal photographs for collage
 - Scissors and glue
 - Colored paper or found materials

Additional Suggestions (optional):

- Small canvas, paper, or other surfaces to work on
- Writing journal (for reflection and prompts)
- Personal objects or materials that hold meaning (optional, for inspiration or inclusion in your work)
- Recycled materials or found objects for transformation and reuse

Studio Essentials:

- Apron or smock (recommended)
- Paper towels or cleaning cloth
- Water container (for painting)

Important Notes:

- No prior experience is necessary.
- Students may bring ongoing work from other classes if they wish to develop it in a more reflective and discussion-based setting.
- Sharing work is always optional; all levels of participation are respected.
- The focus of the class is on exploration and meaning rather than technical skill or finished products.
