

SILK PAINTING

Artist-Instructor: Deborah Zwetsch

Tuesday

November 24, 2026

from 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

1-day workshop fee: $105 / $76annual donors

Supply fee: $50 per student, and payable to the instructor for all materials provided: two finished blank scarves of crepe de chine – 11 by 40 inch. Thickened dye in three colors and one clear.

Deborah will inspire students with examples of textiles from all over the world, using natural images for textile design and her own creations. Students are asked to bring Inspirational examples of cloth using nature's images.

Class will begin with an enjoyable group exercise to loosen up the creative juices! Deborah will demonstrate many techniques for the application of dye on silk, including using a brush.

Students will come away from the workshop with two crepe de chine silk scarves 11" X 40" of their own original art. Finishing and care instructions for the scarves will be provided to all students.
