

Artist bio:

Gus “Tavi” Miranda

Gus holds a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree from Florida International University with a major in painting, along with his National Boards for Professional Teaching Certificate in Visual Arts. As a former employee in Miami-Dade Public School System, he had over 15 years’ experience as an elementary art teacher and museum educator. He has also had many years instructing summer camps and teen portfolio development classes at the Museum of Contemporary Art and the Bass Museum of Art. He follows his passion for making pottery and teaching others the wonderful world of art and clay.

Gus’ philosophy on art making and teaching is, “You must learn to trust yourself and your intuition, have no fear and expect beautiful mistakes.”
