Sculpt an October Crescent Moon with Jeff Ocasio during this fun, hands-on, class. You'll learn his technique of sculpting with masking tape, including all the basics of shaping and constructing with this unusual medium. In this three-hour beginner-friendly class, you'll transform a roll of masking tape, glass marbles and wire into a charming crescent moon that hangs from the ceiling.

Jeff's teaching style is relaxed and conversational, and each student is given personalized attention. By the end of the class, you'll leave with your very own masking tape-sculpted moon and an instructional handout on how to seal and paint your sculpture at home with easy-to-find materials.
